UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

United States,

Plaintiff,

v.

Andrea Burrow,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:19-CR-00295

Stipulation and Order to Continue Sentencing Hearing

(First Request)

Defendant Andrea Burrow, by and through the undersigned, and the United States, by and through the undersigned, hereby agree and stipulate, and request an Order from this Court upon such stipulation and agreement, that the sentencing hearing in this matter, currently scheduled for November 25, 2020, at 11:00 am, should be continued at least 14 days, or other time convenient to the Court, as follows:

1. Late last week, Ms. Burrow was exposed to two co-workers who tested positive for the COVID virus. She has been quarantining since. She has been tested for the virus, but has not received the results back. Over the last two days, she has experienced some flu-like symptoms. Although the sentencing hearing was supposed to be conducted remotely, this development will prevent Ms. Burrow and undersigned counsel from being together during the hearing, which is important to both.

2. On the morning of November 24, 2020 (the date of filing the instant stipulation), counsel for government informed Ms. Burrow's counsel that the government had failed to produce certain discovery which appeared in its discovery index. Government counsel states this was inadvertent, but intends to produce the discovery for review by defense counsel. This evidence could have a bearing on the case.

3. The defendant is out of custody and does not object to this continuance.

4. If the Court grants this stipulation, counsel for Ms. Burrow is unavailable between December 28, 2020 and January 4, 2020.

5. For the reasons stated above, the ends of justice would best be served by a continuance of the sentencing hearing.

6. The additional time requested by this stipulation is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay. Additionally, denial of this request for a continuance could result in a miscarriage of justice.

7. This is the first request for a continuance of the sentencing hearing.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

United States,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Andrea Burrow,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:19-CR-00295

Order Continuing Sentencing Hearing

The Court, having considered the above stipulation of the parties, and good cause appearing, finds as follows:

1. Late last week, Ms. Burrow was exposed to two co-workers who tested positive for the COVID virus. She has been quarantining since. She has been tested for the virus, but has not received the results back. Over the last two days, she has experienced some flu-like symptoms. Although the sentencing hearing was supposed to be conducted remotely, this development will prevent Ms. Burrow and undersigned counsel from being together during the hearing, which is important to both.

2. On the morning of November 24, 2020 (the date of filing the instant stipulation), counsel for government informed Ms. Burrow's counsel that the government had failed to produce certain discovery which appeared in its discovery index. Government counsel states this was inadvertent, but intends to produce the discovery for review by defense counsel. This evidence could have a bearing on the case.

4. If the Court grants this stipulation, counsel for Ms. Burrow is unavailable between December 28, 2020 and January 4, 2020.

5. For the reasons stated above, the ends of justice would best be served by a continuance of the sentencing hearing.

6. The additional time requested by this stipulation is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay. Additionally, denial of this request for a continuance could result in a miscarriage of justice.

IT IS ORDERED that the sentencing hearing currently scheduled for November 25, 2020, at the hour of 11:00 a.m., be vacated and continued to December 30, 2020, at the hour of 11:00 a.m. in Courtroom 7D before the Honorable Judge Gloria M. Navarro.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 24 day of November, 2020.

2020.

Honorable Gloria M. Navarro
